7. The Conway Police Chief wants to remind all drivers to slow down and be patient next week as school starts back. The Conway Police Department will be cracking down for back-to-school traffic enforcement, and asks drivers to be aware of the reduced speed zones. Traffic plans for drop-off and pick-up at schools will be included in orientation materials. Let's start the school year off safely and then keep it that way!

8. Did you know.... The City of Conway has kicked off its annual campaign to raise money for the United Way of Horry County! Human Resources will be meeting with departments from August 7, 2018 - August 23, 2018. You can learn more about the campaign and why the City is involved here.
